

Of all the petitions regarding element 1 I feel that this is a good compromise. This would give Technician class operators a way to upgrade to General and get a taste of HF without having to learn the code but still leave the Extra Class license something to be proud of because they have to put some effort into getting it.